It has always been said that Mechanicsburg is a place of rich tradition. From nicknames to physical icons, tradition has guided our school.

When discussion of a new school first emerged, one of the biggest hurdles was finding a way to encompass our traditions. Hence, the corner bell tower and the sounding of a traditional bell toll at noon each day. From past to present, our rich tradition has helped us build a school that is truly full of memories, some handed down from our grandparents and parents, others beginning new with us to be passed down to future generations. From phrases such as "Rock 'em," to trips to Washington DC, senior skip days and Graduations, K and 12, our traditions wrap us in memories of who we are and where we come from, connecting us to one another past, present, and future.

Traditions like this

DRUGS ALCOHOL ABUSE

This year on May 25, 2011, Mechanicburg High School held a Drug Awareness assembly for students and staff members. The assembly was organized by the FFA Chapter.

NO!

Guest speakers Sheriff Emmons, Jan Rhoades, Susan Lockwood Bell, Nick Selvaggio, Mariclaire Felke and Tracy Woodruff all attended to help inform the student body of the importance of decision making and of the dangers of not just drugs but alcohol as well. Stacy Logwood represented the Drug Free Youth Coalition and the money for this even was sponsored by the MHDAS Board.

What is your favorite memory from the old school?

In 8th grade our girls basketball team was waiting for practice in Coach Cook's room (aka Mr. Cook) I was drawing on his board when Chrissy Bossetti de-pantsed me! Unfortunately the whole team and coach saw my Underwear ! I was mortified!

- Kayla Thomas

Leaving milk in Mrs. Eades class for five weeks!

- Michael Pelfry

I miss the old school's band room and it's carpeted walls!

-Rachel Massengill

Looking back at your High School career what was the most outrageous trend you followed?

I <3 Jeggings! They are so Comfy!!! :)

- Jennifer Goheen

The most outrageous trend i tried would be the athletic one, wow was that ever a nightmare!

-Keith Pope

Are you where you thought you would be?

I am not where I thought I'd be. I always thought that I'd have my life plans figured out, and would be excited. Today I am worried, but we all are. At least we have each other to be completely lost with.

- Kyle Anderson

What will you miss most after you Graduate?

I will miss all the good times that we've shared the past four years. I'll miss seeing Ms. Kneif's art on a kart. I'll miss getting out at noon thirty, I'll miss "MO" and "PRONK". High School is the best part of your life!

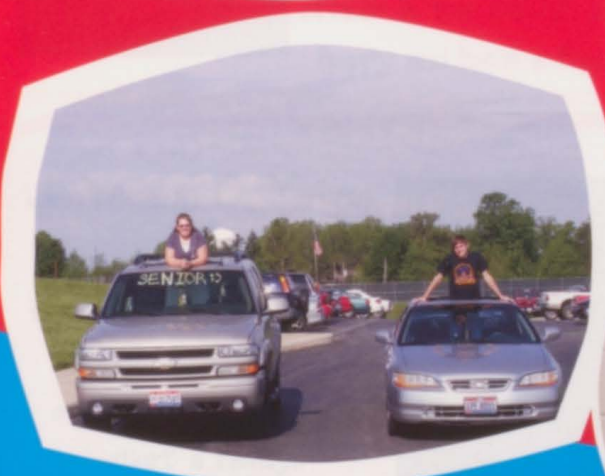

-Jefferson Yates

I will miss sports and all of our goofy classmates in class always getting the teachers off subject.

Linz,

It seems like yesterday you were going to kindergarten and now you are graduating high school. Wow, how time goes by so fast.
You have developed into a wonderful young lady. I wish you the best of luck in life and I know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do. I am always here for you.
Always remember to keep your feet on the ground and keep reaching for the stars.
There is nothing out of reach. Only you, can stop you. I am so proud of you.

I love you with all my heart,
XOXOXO
Mom

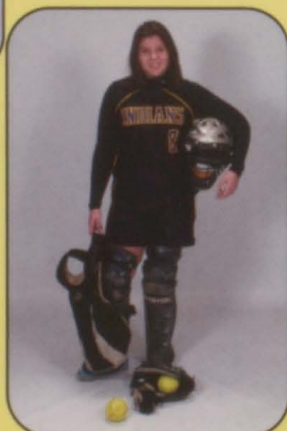

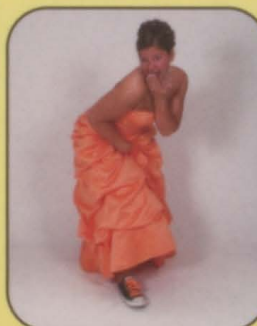

Jamie,

Jamie Dean

You've gone from Daddy's little girl, to a bright young lady. You are a joy. We are all so proud of you and all that you have done. Your future is just the beginning. We know that you will go far. Reach for the stars.

Hey Terd,

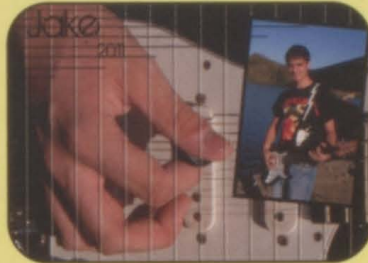

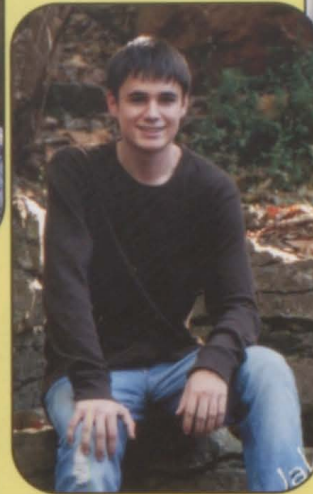

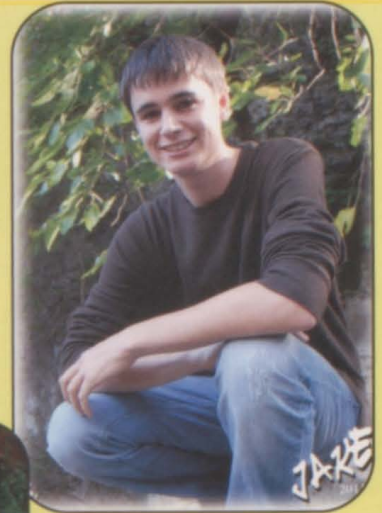

You have always been a pain but I wouldn't have you any other way. you have done things that I don't think I would have been able to do. You are now ready to take on the world and I know you will overcome it just like you have so many other things.
you have every opportunity at your feet, all you have to do is choose which way to follow and I'm sure you will do great. So proud of you little Sister, you have done amazing.

Love Ya Always,
Rob (Bubby)

Jefferson Yates

Jeff,

Your father and I are very proud of your accomplishments thus far in life. You have been active in everything from sports, 4-H and FFA, various officers as well as Grand Champion, Class and Student Council President, attended HOBE and even became Prom Prince! You have excelled at many things and grown into a handsome young man along the way. We know that you have only just begun on your life's journey and we can expect many more great achievements in the future. We wish you all of the successes that life has in store for you! Keep smiling that fantastic smile, and always remember, you are my sunshine! Your family and friends are looking forward to seeing what you can do with your future! Go for it all BMW!

Love,

Mom and Dad

Travis Lee Cassidy

You have asked for the last 4 years what we're going to do when you graduate. "Mom, are you going to cry?" Then you walk away smiling like you think it's so funny. Well Bub, the time is here and yes I'm sure we will shed some tears.

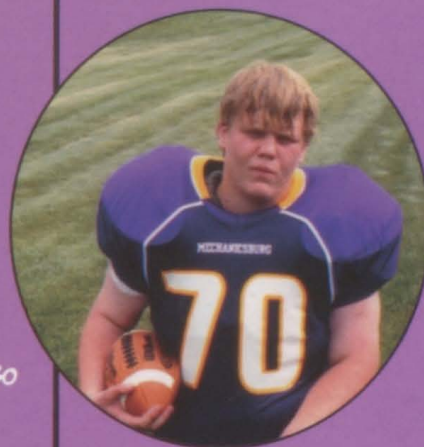

Trav, we don't know where to begin, this list could go on and on, but one thing is for sure, we're so proud to call you our son. From a 2 month preemie to the President of the FFA, you never ceases to amaze us with all you have to say. You have many accomplishments, including Reserve and Grand Champion Dairy Steer and receiving your State FFA Degree. We look forward to watching you become the man you were meant to be.

Let Hard work and Determination be your driving force, down the highway of life you choose for yourself. We love you more than you know and look forward to continuing to watch you grow,

The time has gone so fast, lots of memories in the past. We can now only look forward, to what the future has in store. Good Luck in all you choose.

We love you Travis,

Dad, Mom, Haile and Brian

"Wow" How you've grown from our precious little girl into a beautiful young lady. We are so blessed and proud to call you our daughter. It seems like yesterday, life flashed before us and you were almost taken from us. Remember we believed in you so don't stop believing in yourself. You brought more happiness into our life than you'll ever know. We wish you all the love and happiness that life has to offer. Good luck in life and remember we will always be here for you.

We love you very much,
Mom, Dad, Ross, Austin,
and Hunter

Shelby Schelfele

Shelby,

I am beyond proud of you! You have grown to become an amazing young lady! You can and will do anything you set your mind to do!!

I Love You,
Mom

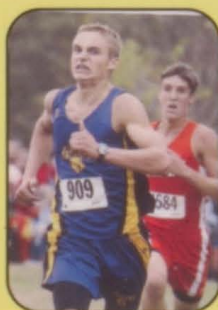

Michael Schaffner

It's so hard to believe the time has come for you to graduate. No words could truly express how very proud we are of you and all of your accomplishments. You have grown from a little boy to a wonderful young man who stand for great honor in what you believe in, loyal to friends and family, and an extremely hard worker in everything you do. You will go far in this world and always, always remember how truly loved you are and your family will be by your side forever!

"Congrats and Best of Luck"

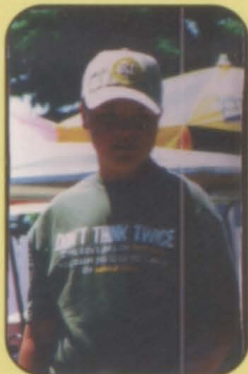

Mom, Dad, Brittney, and Casey

Andrew Pack

Congratulations
Andrew we watched you grow into a fine young.

Kylee Baughman

Congratulations Kylee!

It seems like yesterday you were starting kindergarten and now you are completing high school. The time has gone by so fast.
We are so proud of all the accomplishments you have made through your years of school. You are so talented and kind hearted.

Now that you are about to embark on a new stage of life all your momma can say to you is "I hope you dance".

And dad says "I miss diapers Chica!"
We love you with all our hearts!

Jennifer Johnson

Jennifer,
Congratulations, as one chapter closes, many more begin. We are so proud of you.

Josie Cornelison

Dear Josie,

Kindergarten Graduation! Then off to the National Guard. I can't believe you are so grown up. Wow, where has the time gone?
Congratulations on all you have accomplished. We are so proud of you.

We love you,
Mom, John, Ashley, Carlyn, Hunter, and Britton

Brook Smith

Brook,

It seems like yesterday I brought you home from the hospital and would find you sitting with only a diaper.
Now you're graduating. I'm so proud of you and grandpa Beverly is too. You're my baby so it's hard for me to let go. I love you very much and no matter how old you are, I'm always here!

Congrats and ALL my love,
Mom

Amber,

This is it, a new chapter begins, we are thankful for the day you were born. We are so proud of the young lady you've become. Proverbs 3:5-6 says; Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; In all your knowledge him, and he will direct your paths. We want good things for you, the best is yet to come.

Love you,
Mom and Dad

DUNKING MACHINE

After missing his entire rookie season due to a knee injury, Blake Griffin of the NBA's Los Angeles Clippers became a star with his weekly highlight-reel dunks. Griffin stole the show at the annual Slam Dunk Contest by jumping over a car in his final dunk.

A FULL RECOVERY

Just a year after returning from a long hiatus with an album that some found off the mark, rap artist Eminem released Recovery. The record put him back in the spotlight, with the song "Not Afraid" and 10 Grammy nominations, more than any other musician.

A LEGAL MESS

Lindsay Lohan probably wished she could re-do the year. The troubled actress spent time in jail after a judge determined she violated her probation on DUI charges. Then it was off to a rehab facility after failing a drug test.

REDEMPTION

After a horrific crash broke his ankle the previous year and ruined his season, skateboarder Ryan Sheckler returned at the X Games to win the Skateboarding Street Gold.

NEARLY UNSTOPPABLE

The Connecticut women's basketball team kept on winning. The Huskies hit 89 straight wins before their three-year streak was snapped in December by Stanford. The string of victories broke the college basketball record for consecutive wins.

THE DECISION

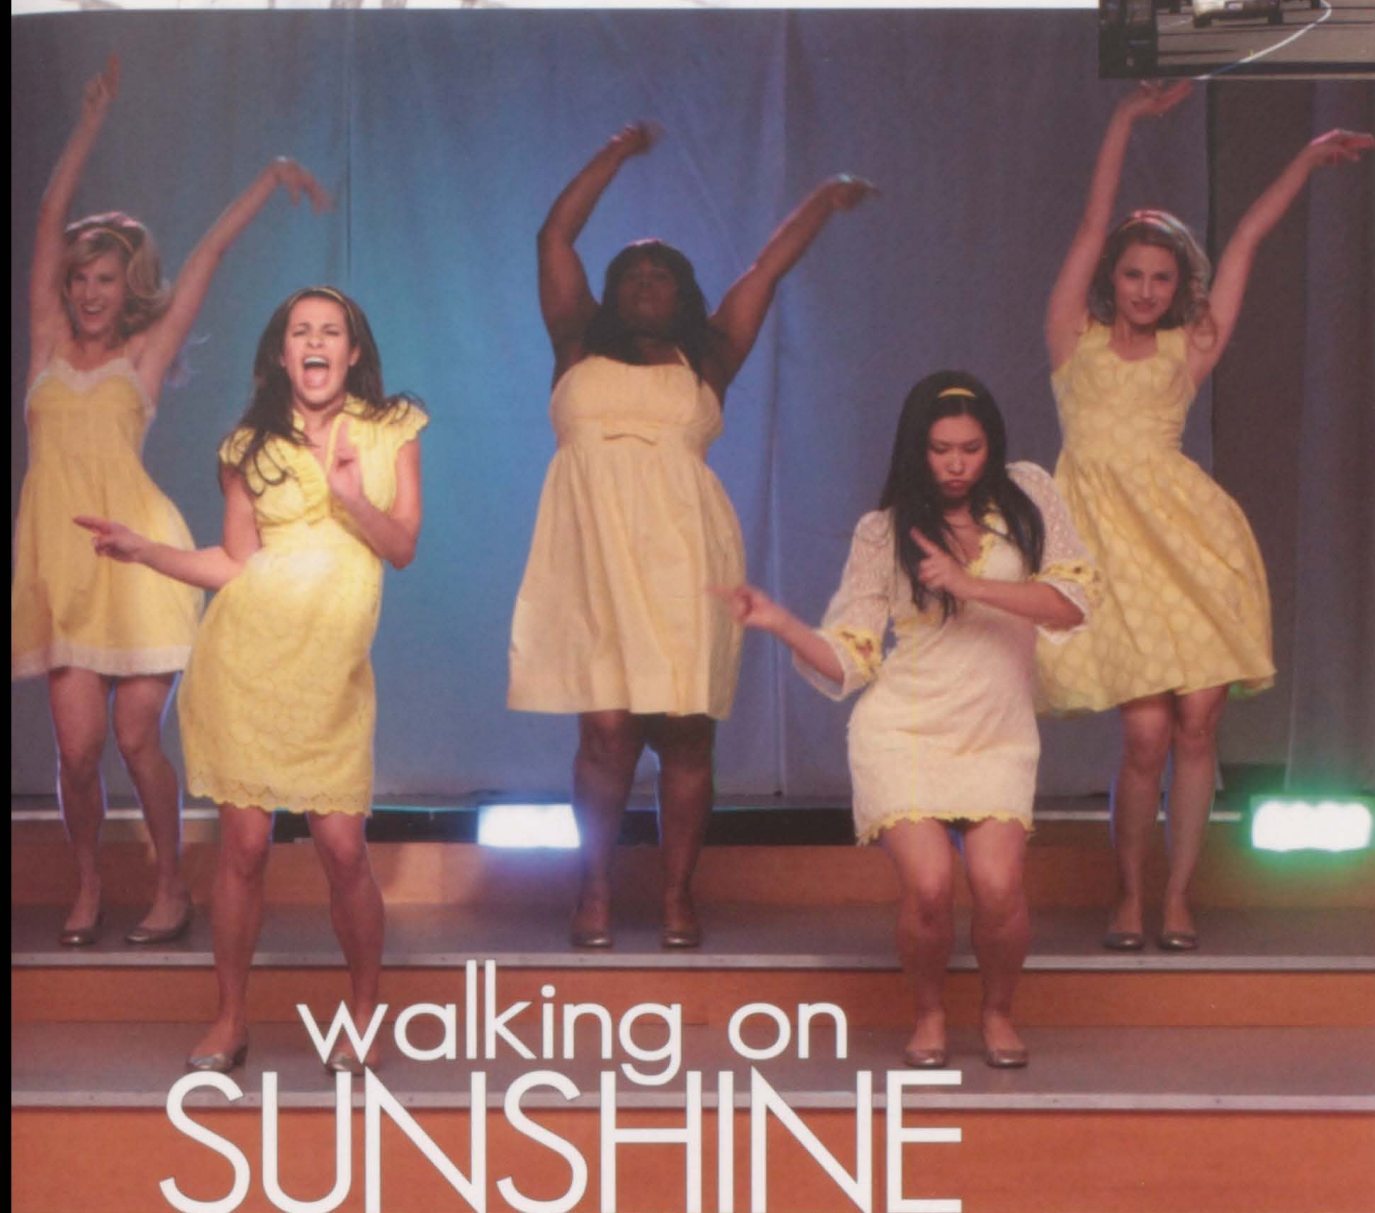

NBA superstar LeBron James infamously announced his intentions to leave his hometown team, the Cleveland Cavaliers, and sign a free-agent deal with the Miami Heat on an ESPN special called The Decision. The program drew high TV ratings, with wildly different reactions from fans.

SING IT!

The world of high school show choir never had it so good. Glee continued to be one of the most popular shows on TV, earning praise from its army of "Gleeeks." Songs from each episode also quickly became some of the most downloaded songs on iTunes.

NO TEXTS BEHIND THE WHEEL

More states began to outlaw text messaging while driving. By the end of 2010, the act was prohibited in 23 states. Other states were considering texting laws targeting drivers under 18. Some studies showed texting while driving to be potentially as dangerous as drunk driving.

NEW EXPRESSIONS

Gleek: a fan of the T.V. show Glee; a blend of "glee" and "geek"

Locavores: people who eat locally grown food

Refudiate: to reject; a possible blend of "refute" and "repudiate;" tweeted by former vice-presidential candidate Sarah Palin

FINALLY, A WEDDING

After seven years of dating, Great Britain's Prince William and Kate Middleton set an April 29, 2011, wedding date. William, second in line to the throne, gave Middleton the sapphire-and-diamond ring given to his mother, Diana.

MIDDLE EAST UNREST

Unrest rippled through the Middle East and blew up in Egypt, where thousands of citizens took to the streets, forcing President Hosni Mubarak to step down. The demonstrations in Egypt followed an uprising in Tunisia that also spread to Algeria, Yemen, Iran, Jordan and Libya.

THE LEGEND OF LONDON

When Landon Donovan knocked home the winning goal in the waning seconds against Algeria in the 2010 World Cup, the U.S. soccer team dramatically won its Group. Unfortunately, the fun did not last when the team lost to Ghana in the next round. Spain was the big winner, defeating Netherlands in the final.

TIME TO RETIRE?

At 41, Brett Favre returned for one more season with the Minnesota Vikings. It was a rough go for the aging star, as the Vikings season crumbled and Favre was knocked out with a shoulder injury that ended his consecutive games streak at 297.

the pack IS BACK

THIS EAGLE SOARS

Auburn quarterback Cam Newton won the Heisman Trophy and led Auburn to the BCS national championship during a dazzling season, even while he endured allegations his father "shopped" him to colleges for money when he was a junior college player. Newton said he knew nothing about it, and the NCAA found no evidence of wrongdoing.

RETURN TO TITLETOWN

Quarterback Aaron Rodgers led the Green Bay Packers to a 31-25 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV, matching up two of the NFL's traditional franchises. Rodgers threw for 303 yards and three touchdowns in the game that drew more than 110 million viewers, making it the most-watched TV program in U.S. history.

FORE!

If it could go wrong this year for Tiger Woods, chances are it did, just like this errant shot at the Ryder Cup. On the comeback trail from his personal troubles, Woods went winless in a season for the first time in his pro career. All the while, Woods lost his #1 ranking and his marriage to Elin Nordegren ended in divorce.

DREAMS DASHED

Illegal immigration remained a hot topic. In December, Congress did not pass the Development, Relief and Education for Alien Minors Act – the DREAM Act – which would have given college students who were illegal immigrants a way to become U.S. citizens.

OIL SPILL AFTERMATH

The economy along the Gulf of Mexico continued to suffer from the worst oil spill in U.S. history. The explosion of a British Petroleum rig pumped about 2.3 million gallons of oil daily into the water until it was capped three months later.

CALIFORNIA DREAMIN'

Ke$ha, Rihanna, Christina Aguilera – pop starlets were huge in 2010-11 and none had a better year than Katy Perry. The first three singles off her album Teenage Dream were among the most downloaded songs of the year, starting with the catchy "California Gurls."

MIDTERM ELECTION SWITCH

Still worried about the economy and jobs, voters on Nov. 2 elected a Republican Party majority to the House of Representatives after putting Democrats in office just two years ago. Some Tea Party members were elected. Democrats kept their Senate majority.

STAND PAT OR PAT DOWN

Air travelers had to decide whether to stand for a full-body X-ray scan or submit to a thorough pat down by Transportation Security Administration agents. Passenger protests did not occur during Thanksgiving, as many feared.

TO INFINITY AND... GOOD-BYE

Talk about waiting for an encore. A decade after the previous movie in the animated series, Toy Story 3 closed the story on Woody, Buzz Lightyear and the rest of the gang. Most agreed it was a fitting wrap-up for the lovable group.

A FINAL CHAPTER FOR HARRY POTTER

The film version of the final chapter in the Harry Potter saga of books, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, was broken up into two parts. The first movie was released in November to much fanfare, with the conclusion scheduled (once and for all) by summer 2011.

MORE WOES FOR HAITI

Following a devastating earthquake early in the year, Haiti ended 2010 in the middle of a cholera epidemic. The death toll reached more than 1,700 people and continued to rise.

U.S. SOLDIERS ON DUTY

While fewer than 50,000 U.S. soldiers remained in Iraq, about 98,000 of them were fighting the Taliban in Afghanistan. More than 470 U.S. soldiers died in Afghanistan in 2010, and U.S. officials considered moving the troop withdrawal date from 2011 to 2014.

AUSTRALIA DRENCHED

Devastating flooding started in November in Australia's state of Queensland and did not let up for months. In addition to soaking rains, Cyclone Yasi packed a punch amid the watery destruction. Twenty people died, including a 13-year-old boy who drowned while begging rescuers to save his younger brother first.

record SNOWFALL

HISTORIC BLIZZARD

Ice, snow, wind and sub-zero cold Jan. 31-Feb. 3 interrupted life for millions of people in 30 states from Texas to Maine. Record snowfall in some places – one to two feet from Oklahoma to Michigan – and fierce winds caused whiteouts, stranded motorists and hindered snowplows. Schools, businesses, cities and airports closed, and buildings collapsed.

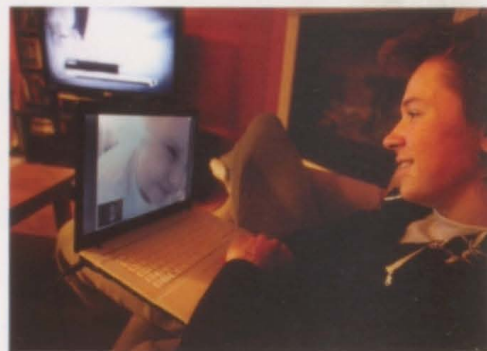

URBAN FARMING TAKES ROOT

As the desire to eat locally grown foods increased, more city dwellers were planting their own gardens and even raising chickens for the eggs. Ordinances were revised in several cities to allow residents to keep a few chickens.

SWEET DAILY DEALS

Groupon.com became one of the latest internet crazes by offering up a deal of the day. If a certain number of people signed up for the "Groupon," it took effect for all. By the end of 2010, Groupon was serving up daily deals in the 150 largest U.S. cities to nearly 35 million registered users.
