Mechanicsburg High School Mechanicsburg, Ohio

There's a small school in a small town, in the not far past and the not near future, who, like many other small schools, found itself one year, in the dead of winter. Winter comes once a year, always will, but this one was filled with inches upon inches of thick white snow. The wind blew, the snow drifted, and the roads closed. Old timers said it was the worst winter for years. Along with the roads, the schools also closed. No one was sure if this was due to the weather or due to the lack of interest.

Along with the sub-zero temperatures, came the news of "gas shortages." This put a definite cramp in the school's style and in their pipes, which were on the verge of freezing.

Along with gas shortages, came money shortages. Gas was scarce but money was scarcer. Again and again levies were failing. Failed to some people's pleasure and to others' distress.

Finally, in the chilly month of March, our levy passed. The school reopened its doors and again got about its business of educating the youth of its small town.
School dragged on and people got back in the swing of things, but the small school never completely recovered from the winter that was, when school wasn't.
The winter that was, still is, and the school is ours. Winter comes but once a year and always will, hopefully, our school will always be able to hold on until spring and never have to be known as the school that wasn't and never will be again!

Marian Visits the Burg

On January 10, 1977, Mariana Hirigoyen arrived at Port Columbus. The seventten year old Exchange student from Santiago, Chile was welcomed to the U.S. and Ohio by her host family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Welch, Ann, and Jane. Mariana was very excited to begin classes and meet the students, but as a result of the snow and zero temperatures she enjoyed three weeks of sledriding. School finally opened and Mariana enjoyed Chemistry, English, and study hall. Mariana had met many friends in Mechanicsburg, and she did have one special guy, whom she says she'll never forget. Mariana has returned to Chile, but writes to many of us. We'll not forget her.

Action in the School!

This book is dedicated to Mrs. Betty Hinton pictured above in the middle on Senior Day 1977. Perhaps in some small way we can show our appreciation for the enthusiasm and dedication which she gave the "Burg" during her long career.

Betty Hinton we, the Ohito Staff, salute and thank you.
